The rule of thumb for children's birthday parties is to limit the number of guests to your child's age plus one, so a 7-year-old would invite 8 friends, for example. But you know your child best. If she's a social butterfly, stretching the number by two or three or four may be a good fit for her. Your introvert might be overwhelmed by the standard number of party pals. The most important

The nautical first birthday invitation is a slightly uncommon, but charming. Dress your baby in a festive seafaring costume for the party. If your baby loves water, then a mermaid outfit or swimsuit will suit her nicely. A little sailor suit or pirate queen get-up would be equally as appealing. Invite over the sea-crew and put on a spread fit for a Queen of the sea! Nautical nuances are
